TEACHING

Courses Taught

Architectural Design 1 and 2 (First-Year UG and First-Year 3.5-Year Grad Studios)

These studio courses introduce students to fundamental concepts of spatial enclosure, spatial proportion, use, materials, and building-site relationships. The courses also introduce a variety of representation types, including orthographic, paraline, and perspective drawings; hand rendering and watercolor; diagramming; and photography. Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Fall 2013 (4.6/5.0), Spring 2013 [3.5-Year Grad Studio] (4.7/5.0), Spring 2012 (4.6/5.0), Fall 2010 (4.7/5.0), Summer 2009 (4.8/5.0), Spring 2004 (4.7/5.0), Summer 2003 (4.2/5.0), Spring 2003(4.6/5.0), Summer 2002 (4.5/5.0, 4.3/5.0).

Architectural Design 3 and 4 (Second-Year UG Studio)

These studios advance understanding of spatial enclosure, spatial proportion, use, materials, and building-site relationships. Digital design and representational tools are also introduced. Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Spring 2010 (4.7/5.0), Spring 2008 (4.7/5.0), Fall 2007 (4.6/5.0), Spring 2007 (4.4/5.0), Fall 2003 (4.6/5.0), Fall 2002 (4.0/5.0), Spring 2002 (4.4/5.0), Fall 2001 (4.2/5.0).

Architectural Design 5 and 6 (Third-Year UG Studio)

These studio courses advance application of spatial, programmatic, and site concepts. Urban design concepts and complex programmatic issues are introduced. Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Fall 2006 (4.5/5.0), Spring 2006 (4.1/5.0), Fall 2005 (4.8/5.0).

Architectural Design 7 and 8 (Fourth-Year UG Studio)

These studio courses explored a highly focused architectural topic—the role of architecture in individual identity development—defined by the faculty member. Each student explored a particular identity, architectural typology, and method of working. Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Spring 2017 (5.0/5.0), Spring 2005 (4.8/5.0).

Architectural Design 9 and 10 (Fifth-Year UG Studio)

These studio courses foster the investigation of a comprehensive design project in a site and program defined by the student. Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Fall 2011 (Rwanda, 5.0/5.0), Fall 2008/Spring 2009 (3.3/5.0; 3.6/5.0), Spring 2005 (4.9/5.0), Fall 2004 (4.6/5.0).

Advanced Architectural Design (First- and Second-Year Grad Studio)

This course is taught within the Inclusive Design Graduate Research Group and focuses on design for social justice and design for marginalized populations. Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Spring 2016 (India, 4.33/5.0), Spring 2015 (3.9/4.0), Spring 2014 (4.3/5.0), Fall 2012 (4.2/5.0), Spring 2011 (4.7/5.0).

Diversity and Design (University-Wide UG General Education Course)

This course explores the reciprocal relationship between design and society. The course investigates multiple scales of design—media design, product design, interior design, architecture, landscape architecture, urban design, and regional planning—and diverse aspects of society—race, ethnicity, gender, sexuality, age, religion, cognitive ability, physical ability, economic status, and geography. Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Fall 2011 (4.9/5.0), Fall 2009 (4.8/5.0), Fall 2008 (4.6/5.0).

Architectural Theory (Third-Year UG Seminar)

This course introduces the concept of the dialectic in architectural theory. Concepts of tectonics, use, and context across architectural history are discussed. The course advances reading comprehension, critical thinking, group discussion, and writing skills. Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Spring 2012 (4.7/5.0), Spring 2010 (4.5/5.0), Spring 2009 (4.6/5.0), Spring 2008 (4.5/5.0), Spring 2007 (4.7/5.0).

Architectural Research Methods (Fourth-Year UG Honors Seminar and Grad Seminar)

This course advances knowledge in the types and purposes of architectural research. The course introduces a variety of quantitative, qualitative, and design-based research methods, and assists students in the development of an undergraduate thesis prospectus. Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Fall 2015 (5.0/5.0), Fall 2014 (4.2/5.0), Fall 2013 (4.2/5.0), Fall 2010 (4.9/5.0), Fall 2009 (4.9/5.0).

Architectural Design Methods (First-Year UG Seminar)

This course introduces basic design concepts, methods, and cognitive processes, and architectural works that exemplify these concepts. Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Summer 2009 (4.9/5.0).

Architectural Technologies (Third-Year UG Lecture)

This course introduces concepts, principles, and physics of electric lighting, electrical, plumbing, and HVAC systems. Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Spring 2003 (3.8/5.0), Spring 2002 (3.7/5.0).

Various Seminars

Semesters Taught (Student Evaluations): Spring 2018 (4.6/5.0), Spring 2013 (4.9/5.0), Fall 2007 (4.8/5.0), Summer 2007 (4.1/5.0), Spring 2004 (4.4/5.0), Fall 2003 (4.6/5.0), Spring 2003 (4.7/5.0), Fall 2002 (4.7/5.0), Summer 2002 (4.3/5.0), Fall 2001 (3.4/5.0).
